Firemen Seek New Grant Of $100 Each, Ask New Fire Hall

Newmarket—Fifteen firemen attended council meeting on Monday night to ask that the annual grant be increased and that a suitable fire hall be obtained for the new fire truck.

Two resolutions were passed by council, one that a by-law be introduced making the yearly grant $100 per man for the department commencing January 1 and that $1,450 be paid as a 1948 grant if the money could be found. A resolution was passed that the fire, police and property committees meet on the possibility of erecting a new building to house the fire and police departments.

The yearly grant for the department has been $600 for which council budgeted at the beginning of the year. The mayor or assured the department that the chairman of the finance committee, Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillite, would "try and get the balance of the $1,450 somewhere" and if that were possible, provisions would be made so that it could be added to the increased 1949 grant.

Era and Express May Switch Hours To Avoid Power Cuts

Newmarket—The Newmarket Era and Express may have to change its working hours if the threat of power cut-offs becomes a reality. The alternative hours would be from 5 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. for the editorial and mechanical departments of the newspaper. The front office would remain open during the day.

Under these new hours, the paper will be printed Thursday night for distribution Friday morning. Subscribers accustomed to buying their paper at dealers, or getting it from the post office Thursday afternoon will have to wait to Friday morning. It is expected, however, to avoid all other delays in sending the paper to the readers.

The change in hours is being considered because of the need for uninterrupted power during the first four days of the week when the paper is being prepared. A power cut-off would cool the metal in the linotypes and the delay would be aggravated sufficiently to increase expenses and make the paper late.

The decision to change hours will be made Friday when Thursday's power consumption has been tabulated. As long as there is a chance that the power will be interrupted, there is no choice but to change hours.

The co-operation of our readers is asked in accepting this change in hours, should it come about, as something over which the paper has no control. Advertisers and correspondents can assist by having their copy into the office as early as possible.

"Civic Night" Held By Lions

Aurora—Warden Kenneth Thompson of York county was guest speaker at the Civic Night dinner of Aurora Lions club on Tuesday night. Warden Thompson spoke on civic betterment. He strongly urged improved health services and was optimistic that a York county health unit would be established soon to serve all parts of the county.

"The health of our citizens is our most precious asset," he declared. He dealt also with roads and school problems and expressed satisfaction with the establishment of school areas for secondary education as it meant equal opportunities for all children and the possibility of wider educational courses. He was introduced by Reeve A. A. Cook and Lyman Tompkins moved the vote of thanks. Members of Aurora, King and Whitechurch councils and officials were present for the occasion and Mayor Dr. Crawford Rose, Reeve Lorne Goodfellow and Reeve L. P. Evans also addressed the meeting briefly. Club members enjoyed bowling following the dinner.

ATTENDS UNIVERSITY

Newmarket—Mr. Bill Ewing left on Saturday for Kingston, where he will attend Queen's University.

New Commander Named By Legion

Harry Glover, Orangeville, was elected district commander of district E, Canadian Legion, at the district meeting in Bracebridge on Sunday. He succeeded Lt. Col. W. C. Smallwood who retired because of illness. Zone commander H. A. Phelps, Richmond Hill, was elected deputy-district commander.

With over 300 Legionnaires and three bands, the district church parade was held at St. Thomas Anglican church where the rector, Rev. E. R. Craymer, preached an inspiring sermon. Col. G. M. Fitzgerald, first vice president of the Ontario command, took the salute.

Luncheon at the Albion Hotel saw Judge H. M. Robb, Dufferin county, as guest speaker. He was introduced by T. A. M. Hulse, Aurora. Dr. C. B. Ross, Gravenhurst, moved the vote of thanks.

At the meeting in the Strand theatre, Mayor Dr. Bastedo brought official greetings from the citizens of Bracebridge. Speakers at the meeting included Tom Magladori, New Liskeard, Col. Fitzgerald, T. A. M. Hulse, Aurora; Ed Bays and Jack Fenn, Toronto. Present for the meeting was W. C. DeGuerre, district D.V.A. administrator, who paid tribute to the work of the Legion in aiding the department with their problems and especially reaching veterans in the smaller communities.

Resolutions included the lowering of holdings under the Veterans' Land Act from three acres to one-quarter acre; the restoration of accrued benefits to civil servants; the placing of Remembrance Day on the statute books as a statutory and compulsory holiday, among others.

Following the meeting the Bracebridge branch played host to the visiting Legionnaires. Aurora, Newmarket, Richmond Hill, Willowdale and Woodbridge branches from the local zone were represented at the meeting.

Industries Offer Every Help

Newmarket—Although domestic consumers are held responsible for keeping hydro consumption above the quota, Newmarket industrial officials assured Mayor Jos. Vale at a special meeting on Tuesday afternoon with council that they would switch working hours from Mondays to Saturdays if given a week's notice. They estimated that the switch would save 2,000 kwh.

The special meeting was called by the mayor to discuss hydro conservation with industrial heads. He read a letter from the hydro commission that said Newmarket would be required to make hydro cut-offs starting Monday, Oct. 4, if the quota of 19,500 kwh. had not been reached by Friday, Oct. 1. The times for the cuts would be left up to the town.

Chairman of the Newmarket hydro commission, Fred S. Thompson, said that the industries are the smallest consumers and that they conserve most. Of the total power used in a day in Newmarket, the industries all use about 4,000 kwh. which is less than one-fifth of the total consumption.

It was also learned that power to domestic consumers could not be cut off without cutting off the industries with them. The present system of feeding in power to the town would require considerable time, equipment and expense to separate industries from consumers for separate cut-offs.

Even though the domestic and commercial consumption is the problem, the factories have put forth an offer that will cut down the figures. Some factory officials suggested closing down plants for one day a week to bring home to hydro consumers the importance of saving.

Fred A. Lundy introduced the proceedings and A. C. Lord, manager of the Bank of Toronto in Newmarket, spoke briefly.

Aurora Teen-Age Club Opens At A.H.S. Oct. 8

Aurora—The town's popular teen-age club will officially open at Aurora high school on Friday, Oct. 8, at 8 p.m. Young people from the district between the ages of 13 and 19 will be made welcome. Counsellor John E. Sisman and Mrs. Sisman will direct the club's activities this year and a splendid program is being arranged for the coming Friday. Now in its fourth year, the club will miss its founder, H. V. Smith who, owing to pressure of business, has found it necessary to vacate his position as director.

Twice-A-Day Cuts Seen For Newmarket

Newmarket—If power must be cut off in Newmarket in compliance with the Ontario Hydro's demand to stay within the quota limit or else, the probable hours of the black-out will be 10.30 to 11 a.m. and 3 to 3.30 p.m., according to Fred S. Thompson, chairman of the Newmarket commission.

The Newmarket commission was told if the town didn't reach its quota next week, either the power had to be cut off by the town or the Ontario hydro would cut it every hour on the hour until the saving was made.

In the meantime, Davis Leather Co. Ltd., Dixon Pencil Company and Sangamo Electric have changed their hours, taking Monday off and working Saturdays until further notice, effective this Monday. Use of power on Saturdays and Sundays is not considered to be under quotas, and the saving in power consumption Monday can be spread through the week to the town's favor.

Mr. Thompson said he was contacting other industries today to ask them to follow suit. "Without the co-operation of industry, Newmarket would be in considerable difficulty," he said, praising the spirit of co-operation shown by industry generally.

The commission is employing Frank Stevens to make a house-to-house canvass, taking census of electrical equipment and instructing householders on the operation of heaters, showing them how to turn them off and how to save power generally.

A thermometer has been placed in the town clerk's office showing Newmarket's daily consumption of power, and how it compares with the quota.

FAIRY LAKE COST $4,917

Newmarket—The cost of the excavation work at Fairy Lake was $4,917, according to finance committee chairman J. L. Spillite at council meeting Monday night. The Office Specialty agreed to pay half the cost of the project when it was started in the summer.

Newmarket In 'Black-Out'

By J. E. STRUTHERS

Newmarket—Strong demands have been made on householders to conserve power, and in a survey of the town last night by car, we found from all appearances, consumers are responding to the emergency by using minimum lighting with the exception of half a dozen porch lights, and they could have been necessary.

Fred S. Thompson, chairman of the hydro commission, said this morning, that Newmarket is to be congratulated on its efforts to save power. Compared to other municipalities, power conservation has been excellent but consumers are warned not to relax their efforts, he said.

Domestic consumers have been asked to cut off hot water heaters from 11 p.m. to midnight and to use them as little as possible. If our survey last night is evidence of what the public is doing about power consumption, then they are making every effort to observe the request.

In our survey, we dropped in at the Strand theatre and, according to manager Morley Gilkes, the Strand has cut out over 2,500 watts from the normal use of lights. The electric standard over the theatre front was out, there were no lights behind the lettering in front and more than half the lights were out on the entrance overhead. Wall lights in the theatre, amounting to 200 watts, were out and the lobby lighting had been cut down from 400 to 100 watts. The Strand has cut down more than it has been asked.

Pickering College looked dark. Main hall and entrance lights were out, and except for students' rooms and library, all building lights were out. All lights were kept off as late as possible last night and dining hall lights were off until the last moment before dinner.

Factories have turned out their floodlighting and unnecessary outside bulbs. Last night, Davis Leather Co. was in complete darkness without their usual floodlighting. The howl-

Home-School Association Draws Best Attendance

Newmarket—A record attendance of teachers and parents enjoyed a "get acquainted" evening sponsored by the Home and School Association on September 28 at St. Paul's parish hall. Music was provided by H. A. Jackson's orchestra and the guest speaker was Mrs. G. Campbell, Toronto, who gave an interesting talk on home education.

The meeting opened with prayer led by Mrs. Bert Budd. This is an innovation which will be continued at all meetings this year with a theme for world peace leading up to the religious program at Easter time.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. C. E. Wheeland and convenors gave brief outlines on their plans for the year. Grade mothers and teachers received the parents at the close of the meeting over a friendly cup of tea.

Former Aurora Woman Bereaved Of Husband

In the sudden passing of Albert Prentice on Sept. 2, the community of High Falls lost one of the oldest and best respected citizens. He went there from Thornbury on Dec. 6, 1912, to work in the electrical power plants for the International Nickel Company. His hobbies were hunting, boat-building, and toy-making for children. He was a great lover of children.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, the former Mabel Elliott of Aurora; and three daughters, Mrs. R. C. Archibald (Ethel), Copper Cliff; Dorothy, Kincardine; Mrs. M. J. Hayward (Elizabeth), Turbine; Westley, Sudbury; and five grandchildren, Robert Archibald, John, Donald, and Beth Hayward, and Carol Prentice.

The interment took place in Parklawn cemetery, Sudbury.

York Rangers S.S.M. Jack Orr Retires

Aurora—After six years' service as company and squadron sergeant-major, Jack Orr, the popular SSM of C squadron, Queen's York Rangers, has relinquished his post and retired. On Sunday evening last in the sergeants' mess, Mr. and Mrs. Orr were honored with the presentation of a five-piece silver tea set. Major James Westhead, OBE, did the honors on behalf of the unit and speakers included RSM William Stocks, Lt. Ted Johnson and other members of the squadron. Mr. Orr, who resides at Willowdale, has given unstintingly of the time to promote the work of the reserve unit. No appointment has been as yet announced.

On Sunday, over 300 persons took advantage of the "open house" program of the North York squadron to visit the armory. The Queen's York's band provided a splendid program of music and members of the Ladies' Auxiliary served tea. Several new recruits are reported as joining the squadron. On October 18, another night open to the public will be held.

Ing greens were in darkness. The Main St. business section was dark except for businesses open late. Fluorescent lighting gives the impression of excessive lighting but in reality much less power is used with that type of lighting.

We set out to criticize the town last night but we found on appearances that householders were to be congratulated instead on the number of lights they were using. Some streets were definitely dim. What meets the eye may not be a true indication of the amount of power that is being used daily in the homes but if the manner in which lighting is conserved is any indication, householders are co-operating all the way.

Ont. Hydro Threatens Hourly Cuts

Newmarket and Aurora were told on Tuesday that if they didn't reduce power consumption to their quota limit by Friday, power cut-offs would be made on Monday, and daily thereafter until the saving was made.

The ultimatum was contained in a letter over the signature of E. R. Lawler, manager of the Toronto region of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

If the power cuts were necessary, the local commissions could either pull the switches themselves at a time of their own choosing, or the provincial commission would do it, cutting power every hour for 15 minutes until the saving was made.

Text of the letter:

"Your week-day consumption of kilowatt-hours has been consistently in excess of the quota allotted your municipality and the commission is therefore reluctantly obliged to inform you that unless your week-day consumption of kilowatt-hours is reduced to the quota, 10,500 kwh., which has been allotted you it will be obliged commencing October 4 to request you to open feeders at regular intervals throughout the day until the required reduction is assured. We shall be glad to co-operate with you in arranging the time and duration of these interruptions most suited to your requirements. Failure to comply with any such request will make it necessary for the commission to interrupt your power supply every hour on the hour throughout the day from dawn until dark for periods of time ranging up to 15 minutes in duration."

"Advance notice of this action is being given so that you may have an opportunity to notify all your consumers of what to expect in the event that the required reduction in their week-day consumption of kilowatt-hours is not forthcoming, and also so that you will have an opportunity of taking steps to safeguard all vital services during power cut-offs, should these become necessary."

Morning Paper Hours Threaten

The chairman for the Ontario hydro commission, Robert Saunders, is threatening power cuts of 15 minutes every hour, beginning next week, for those municipalities in southern Ontario who have not reduced their consumption to the quota set for them. If Mr. Saunders should have to carry out this threat in Newmarket, it looks very much as if The Era and Express will have to begin the operating hours of a morning newspaper. Regular power cuts would pretty well make useless our linotypes, the machines which set type for the newspaper. The linotypes have pots of molten lead kept by thermostatic control at a temperature of 535 degrees. If they are turned off, the lead "freezes" in the pots and it takes a long time to re-heat it. To maintain steady typesetting, we would need uninterrupted power and if Mr. Saunders starts pulling switches by day, the only time we can get that power will be at night.

It is not a prospect that is pleasing. We started our career on a morning newspaper, the Montreal Gazette, and the clear memory we have of the time spent on the paper is of chronic indigestion. Going to work at 5 p.m. and finishing after midnight played hob with our eating habits until it seemed that we ate more bicarbonate of soda than we did bread and meat. But if we have to do it to keep producing the paper, well, we'll have to get out the soda again.

Ginger Investigates Genus Beanery

well boss i just returned from that assignment you sent me on to cover the beanery gang question a fine bunch of boys you know i think those city papers are all wrong because i went to call on the beanery gang leader and was told he was away in a truck with some other nice young boys on a sunday school picnic.

i shall tell you what i found however from my investigations first of all every one i interviewed had hair on his head two arms and two legs and looked exactly like a human being everyone of them wears clothes.

they eat such foods as bread and butter vegetables and cooked meat they eat regularly three times a day thirty four percent part their hair on the right side fifty percent on the left and 16 percent of them comb their hair straight back incidentally while taking this poll i met a representative of a shampoo company who was trying to get one of the boys to endorse his product no said the boy i shall not taint my organization by accepting money like that of course you must remember that being a cat i had difficulty in acquiring some of this information as some of the people kept asking me how do you operate a typewriter with your paws and other such ridiculous questions question mark the beanery boys were hard to find in the city too for one thing nobody was able to define a beanery boy so i picked out a youth at random in the section

See Good Hunting In Whitchurch

The pheasant hunt in the township of Whitchurch this fall should be the best on record so far as the taking of game is concerned. Farmers and others report seeing many of the birds about, indicating that many came through last winter unharmed. In addition there has recently been brought into the township over 1,100 birds. These have been fed and watered for several weeks, before starting them on "their own". The Township Wild Life Conservation club has spent over $100 in feeding and care and additional money in erecting pens, in order to make the territory popular during the hunting season.

William Hamilton, Uxbridge, is now enjoying the rewards of long years of service to his community. Mr. Hamilton has just completed 63 years of threshing. He started work with his father when he was 14 and when he was 23 he bought his own machine and began the route of Quaker Hill, through the Peasby settlement and Sandford, where he has continued to serve

Editorials

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Long Range Financing First

"Are we going to make improvements as we are forced to or are we going to lay out a long range plan?" That is the question asked of the Newmarket town council last week by Mayor Vale. What the answer will be is anybody's guess. Long-range planning requires long-range financing, a practice to which councils past and present have been remarkably oblivious. A low tax-rate has become accepted through the years as the only standard of municipal efficiency, and while it may be a pleasant sight for the taxpayers, there is no gain when in efforts to attain this ideal, the town is bankrupted of its physical facilities.

A good instance of this short-sightedness was the manner in which the municipality administered electric power in the pre-hydro days. The income from the sale of power was applied to the reduction of the tax rate, not to assuring that there would be reserves for the maintenance and development of the system. When commission management was inevitable, expenditures on the system were held to an absolute minimum. What the hydro commission took over from the town as an electric power system scarcely dignified the name. Three years later, the hydro commission is still pouring money into the system in an effort to make it adequate to the demand.

Another instance of financial expediency is the manner in which the enlarged school grants of Premier Drew were used to reduce the tax rate instead of for the creation of surpluses to be spent on improving sidewalks, roads, bridges, etc. The grants caused a reduction in the mill rate which was followed the next and subsequent years by increases in the mill rate beyond the reduction.

A good part of the fault for these conditions rests with the public. They complain of the roads but they have intentionally, or otherwise, encouraged councils, in the belief that they would rather have a mill knocked off their taxes than pavement on their street. If the citizens want it otherwise, they have not indicated it in sufficiently large numbers and sufficiently loud voices. Until they do, or until council is prepared to show leadership in sensible financing, hopes for "long-range planning" are going to be wrecked on the rocks of short-sighted financing.

Why Encourage Them?

Aurora, it seems, had a bloody weekend a week ago Saturday. "Several local citizens" were "attacked and beaten up". Locals lads, members of an "Aurora gang", are hoping "these out-of-town trouble-makers will return for another fight shortly".

The story we received from the police, and verified by others, was that two men scuffled in a restaurant and then went outside to a vacant lot where they continued the dispute. A lamentable manner of debate, to be sure, but scarcely a "Beanery Gang-Type" fracas, as one paper described it.

Reports of the multiple beatings and the "sporadic fighting" were described by the police as "oyewash". The thing would be amusing were it not that it indicates a growing zeal to rush into type the wildest sort of stories. The inevitable leavings are confusion, unpleasant publicity, and a growing apprehension in the mind of the public which leads to hasty action, to be regretted later.

Some sections of the press have become so "gang conscious" that when two otherwise normal adults raise their fists against each other, the battle of Wasaga Beach is fought anew. The notoriety attached to such incidents because of exaggerated publicity doesn't discourage would-be participants. On the contrary, having been herded into gangs by over-zealous editors, some of these minor league hoodlums feel it necessary to live up to their ready made reputations—and then the real trouble begins.

A statement of fact is all that is required. Anything else merely enhances that "bubble reputation" of the hoodlum which has become the goal of so many of today's aimless youth. Why encourage them in their search?

The Salvation Army is campaigning for $2,000 from Newmarket and district in their annual Red Shield Appeal. This is a worthy cause. A major portion of the funds collected will be spent in local service work, the rest being used to support the national institutions maintained by the Salvation Army. In the hands of the efficient Salvation Army officers, you can be sure your contribution will be used in a manner to do the most good.

'Samplers' Prized Local Possessions

By ETHEL WILLSON TREWHELLA, PART IV

Mrs. W. L. Bosworth on Davis Dr. has a group of six treasured samplers. Framed, is one executed by her mother, "Josephine Forsyth, aged six years, 1869". It is of the alphabet and numerals. There are birds and a sleeping dog at the bottom and a row of little trees, and is surrounded by a narrow border in shades of red, blue and brown. Another is in brilliant tones of red, violet, green and blue, very artistically blended. It also is comprised of the alphabet and numerals, with the addition of domestic animals and some flowers. This is signed, "Helen or Boss Forsyth, aged ten years, 1869".

On very fine linen is worked the third of this group, with rows of letters and conventional motifs. Between clusters of rose buds is the date, "1868." At the bottom are birds and flowers, and, "Elizabeth Forsyth, aged seven years, 1854."

The next sampler excites unusual interest and originated at a time and place when dramatic events were shaping life in Upper Canada. The details of the work are very fine and a running vine surrounds the poem:

"The Prophet Child.
Within the temple slept the child,
The after prop of Israel's fame,
When o'er his slumbers, calm and mild,
The summons of Jehovah came.
The call was heard, the child awoke,
With beating heart and bended knee,
The future Guide and Prophet spoke,
Speak, Lord, thy servant heareth Oh, when we hear Jehovah's voice
Breaking the slumbers of the soul,
So may we rise and so rejoice,
So bend our will to His control.

The fifth in this group is small, eight inches by six, but commands the admiration as a marvelous piece of childish industry. The entire background is filled by minute cross-stitches. It is an evening farm scene, flying birds and a man with dog driving the cows home. Prominent in the centre is the name, "Elizabeth Mosley." This little picture is developed in natural grey with the figures in realistic relief, and is surrounded by a green vine in pleasing contrast.

The last in this remarkable collection is perhaps the most outstanding. There are three rows of the alphabet cross-stitched in brown, fawn and black, beneath which are two extra rows of letters executed in very fine eyelet embroidery. This is the first instance of that beautiful eyelet work discovered in these samplers. The name, "Elizabeth Mosley, aged 11 years, 1822," is in the centre. A formal arrangement of trees, potted plants, with birds and animals, complete the scheme. This last mentioned is also embellished by an artistic border of trailing vine. The names so neatly embroidered on these samplers are reminiscent of life in Newmarket more than 50 years ago.

Mrs. Mary Roadhouse has three of these samplers. One is on a very fragile background of old ivory - colored canvas, is cross-stitched in silk, and the decoration is a reproduction of the Garden of Eden, with flowering plants, and trees of colorful fruit among which tropical birds flit away the happy hours. In the centre is the tree from which was plucked the fatal apple, and beneath Mother Eve proffers the tempting fruit to her husband standing beside her. Angels with outspread wings hover over the tree, and just above them are the words, "Eve did the apple take, and gave unto her husband who did eat." At the left is a bizarre colored plant and on the opposite side a cat sits wrapped in feline silence. A handsome border of the combined colors of the picture completes the whole, and the artist's name, "Elizabeth H. Webb's Sampler, 1845."

His summons call us even now; Oh may each instant answer be, Father, at thy command I bow, Speak, for thy servant heareth Thee!

Elsa Ross, aged eight, March 13th, Toronto, 1844."

Flower motifs accentuate the artistic appearance of this lovely sampler.

Mark Advent Of Hydro At Stouffville

The advent of hydro electric lighting to Stouffville was celebrated September 28 according to the files of 25 years ago, when the town was illuminated for the first time with the new power. A great crowd participated in a street carnival and promenade while Uxbridge orchestra and Stouffville band rendered a musical program. The ceremony was given a good send off when Reeve Morden mounted the new fire truck, which was on exhibition and throw the town wide open to joymakers.

Mrs. Gamble gave a paper on agriculture and industry that took us back a good number of years. The contest was won by Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Gould and Mrs. N. Mitchell. A very dainty lunch was served and the meeting closed with God Save the King.
 Mrs. Walter Robinson spent a very happy birthday on Sunday when relatives from Bracebridge, Keswick, Sharon, Toronto, Aurora and Arthur had a surprise party for her. Mrs. Robinson received many beautiful gifts. The birthday supper was served on the lawn.

'SAMPLERS'
 The second has for a foundation a linen of a deeper shade—almost yellow, and is composed of the Webb genealogical record. "Clayton Webb was born March 25, 1799. Sarah Webb was born February 20, 1804. Rachel Webb was born November 7, 1823. Silas Webb was born March 23, 1826. Caroline Webb was born July 25, 1828. Elizabeth H. Webb was born January 10, 1834. Charles C. Webb was born May 10, 1836."
 Below is the signature, "Elizabeth Webb's Sampler, wrought by her in the tenth year of her age, January, 1843."
 The whole design is surrounded by a running vine in summer bloom. It is a cross-stitched specimen and is interesting, being the first found of these genealogical examples.
 The third is on an open-mesh canvas, and is different from the usual sampler because it is developed in needle-point stitch. It is also composed of the Webb family record to 1850, and is prettily bordered. There is no name to indicate who worked this sampler, nor is there a date. It would seem from other details lacking that it had not been quite completed. Both of these exhibits have had wool used as the medium of expression.

Weaving Classes
Have Full Booking

Newmarket—Mrs. Ted Mitchell reports that there is a full enrollment for the weaving course being conducted from October 4 to October 26 at the Scout hall. Miss Mary Andrews of the department of planning and development will give the instruction. Ladies from Aurora, King and Newmarket make up the class.

"It is hoped that a demonstration of the work done during the course can be arranged for the early part of November," said Mrs. Mitchell.

Annual W.I. Bazaar
Held in Town Hall

Newmarket—The annual bazaar of the Women's Institute held in the town hall on Sept. 23 proved very successful with a large group in attendance. Music in the background added enjoyment to the dainty lunch served in the flower-decorated room. Pouring tea were Mrs. Arthur Boyd, Mrs. W. E. Richardson and Miss L. Toole.

A bake table, fancy work, farm produce, jars of jams and honey, and a white elephant sale, all received their share of attention from the many guests. Mrs. Elman Campbell and her "Ways and Means" committee were in charge of the event.

SCOUT MOTHERS

Newmarket—The Scout Mothers' Auxiliary will hold the first regular meeting in the Scout Hall on Monday, Oct. 4, beginning at 8 p.m. sharp. Plans for a fall tea and bake sale will be arranged and the fall activities outlined at this meeting. All mothers of Cubs and Scouts are invited to attend.

Homemakers' Exchange

Pickled green tomatoes are well known, but in soup or even salad they are equally good. An old, old recipe using them as fruit for dessert calls for the green tomatoes to be sliced, the seeds removed, and then cooked with half their weight in sugar.

GREEN TOMATO PICKLES

30 Medium green tomatoes (7½ lbs.)
6 Large onions ¼ Cup salt
1 Tbsp. mustard seed
1 Tbsp. whole allspice
1 Tbsp. whole cloves
1 Tbsp. dry mustard
1 Tbsp. celery seed
1 Tbsp. peppercorns
½ Lemon 2 Sweet red peppers
2½ Cups brown sugar
3 Cups pickling vinegar

Slice tomatoes and onions thinly and place in a crock or enamel vessel in alternate layers with the salt. Let stand overnight. In the morning, drain thoroughly, rinse in cold water and drain well again. Tie all spices loosely in a cheesecloth bag. Slice lemon thinly. Remove stem and seed cores from peppers and slice thinly. Add spice bag and sugar to vinegar, bring to boiling point, then add tomatoes, onions, lemon and peppers. Cook for ½-hour, stirring gently to prevent sticking. Remove spice bag and pack pickle in hot, sterilized jars.

For my shut-in friends, in response to their letters, here's a little article of another trip—and if you have a road map look up Goderich on Lake Huron, or Kincardine in Bruce peninsula, and half way between you will find a point called Point Clark. That is where we are heading for—the same Point Clark which I used to write about before the war—the place we all loved so well.

The light house there has a special interest to me for its beams used to sweep across the beach in front of our cottage. I never can think of Point Clark without thinking of that light house. I was always keenly interested in the subject of light houses but this one is something personal. I know it so intimately!

But I've been holding you up—where were we? Oh yes, looking at the road map to locate our destination. Sometimes we have gone straight through Glenville and the Holland Marsh to hit No. 9 highway at Orangeville, but this time we went to Aurora and west along Wellington St. skirting Kettleby and at this side of Schomberg, taking No. 27 till we hit No. 9 that takes you to Mono Mills where the road curves

Describe Methods
Of 'Hobby' Weaving

Newmarket—Speaking at a gathering of the Hobby Craft Group of Hope, Mrs. L. H. Bovair, Newmarket, gave an interesting talk on "The Way of Weaving." Ladies from Holt, Sharon and the surrounding districts last year formed this hobby group and are planning to become actively interested in weaving this season.

Accompanying Mrs. Bovair were Mrs. E. A. Mitchell and Mrs. Stewart Beare, who demonstrated the use of three types of looms—the inkle loom, box loom and the four-harness table loom. Work that has been completed in the Newmarket weaving group was displayed. The meeting which was held on Sept. 21 at the home of Mrs. Peg closed with musical selections, a lively discussion group and refreshments.

round hills, runs through country with trees on both sides of the road. When we came back on a Sunday it was getting dark and the evening service was on at the little Anglican church at the eastern end of the village. Trained on to the big east window was a flood light. I'd loved to have been at the service and seen the light shining through the stained glass window over the altar.

But there I go again—holding you up—oh yes, Mono Mills! We used to wonder what the peculiar wooden frames in a field along there were for, so I asked our good friend, Mr. J. O. Little, who knows that district like a book, and he told us it was for drying gentian. I think that is now a memory, for the frames did not look as if they were in use any more. Their memorial was, as always, well remembered with wreaths and flowers. What hurts me about Mono Mills are the ruins of several fine homes and stores.

Then you go through Orangeville—and that is such a splendidly laid out town and such a busy place where everyone seems flower-garden minded. Then you skirt Arthur but you know by surroundings that they have something to do with forestry for the highway is lined by small evergreens. Some day it will be a beautiful road, it is already paved and widened.

I expect I have before this told you about the sturdy, well-made waiside picnic tables placed in pleasant positions along the way. They are such a convenience and are well patronized. They are kept up by the highway department.

Now we go straight along through Teviotdale to Harrison, a pleasant looking place with a nice post office where we posted some letters on our way home, for the rural route mail man from Ripley ended his trips round Point Clark on September 15 and we forgot to mail them at Kincardine.

We had our lunch at a wayside table on the way there this side of Walkerton but first you pass through Clifford and Midway, small villages both, but so attractive. You do not go through Walkerton and the wayside table is at a turn in the road where they have cut across a farmer's field and the old road joins No. 9 a field's length away—and the wayside table is on the old road and as we sat eating our lunch we could see the traffic both ways.

We admired the big barn beside the imposing farm house at the corner and I began to speculate it—I'd say it is a gentleman's farm. Everything was so spick and span with garden chairs in front of the house which had a lovely flower garden as well. There was a wonderfully fenced yard round the fine big barn—and horses were painted on the two sides of the barn visible from the road. What would you think? It is no ordinary farm I am sure!

You see Walkerton to the right as you proceed up No. 9. Then Greenock, Riversdale, Kincardine, Berville—and then that delightful place, Kincardine—so Scotch—"You are a stranger only once. Will you no come back again?"

I'd better leave us at Kincardine for Mr. Editor will be thinking I've made this long enough, and I can tell you more next week. I just want to add one more item and that is we passed river after river with nothing but stones in the river bed, some, yes most, without a drop of water! Of course it has been a long, dry spell but to see such an array of stones you think it would be a raging torrent in the spring. No wonder we are short of hydro power! Now we are 11 miles from our destination—and it was a lovely trip across. The country after Orangeville is so flat compared to our country round here in this wonderful county of York. Kincardine overlooks Lake Huron and you'd swear you were looking out to sea, for you can see nothing but sky blue water as far as the horizon. Next week we'll go on down the blue water highway to Point Clark.

Toronto Rink Wins
Mulock Trophy

Newmarket—The ladies of the Newmarket Bowling club were very pleased with the results of their tournament last Thursday. The weather was ideal, the crowd excellent, and the competition keen.

Mrs. Stewart and rink of Glen Manor, Toronto, battled their way to high three wins, capturing the Mulock trophy. Mrs. Al. White and rink of Richmond Hill came through for second place with three wins. Mrs. Crossin and rink of Stouffville piled up a good score of 59 plus 11 for two wins. Mrs. Jack Booth and rink of Newmarket came through for a high for one win, scoring 41 plus 3. Chickens were awarded for prizes.

The big fall tournament will be held Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 11. Mixed rinks will begin at 10 a.m.

St. Paul's Celebrates
Harvest Thanksgiving

Newmarket—St. Paul's Anglican church celebrated Harvest Thanksgiving at all three services last Sunday. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit, vegetables and grain for the occasion and there was special music by the choir. There was also a special children's service in the afternoon. Rev. L. R. Willis gave the address in the evening. The rector, Rev. J. T. Rhodes, announced that he is beginning confirmation classes next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the church. Special services are being arranged for Youth Sunday, Oct. 17. The Women's Auxiliary is holding its opening meeting in the parish hall on Oct. 7. The members are planning an autumn tea to be held Oct. 22. The W.A. is anxious to start the sale of church calendars early. Anybody desiring a copy may get one from any W.A. member.

Young
Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Kenny, six years old, is learning comparisons between little things and big things. He is also learning that there is a difference between what little boys may do and what big boys may do. Recently, Kenny came home with the announcement that he wanted a big two-wheel bike like the other boys at school. Kenny's mother was somewhat perturbed until she learned that her son referred to much older, big boys, who had practically financed their bicycles themselves. Mother explained that big two-wheel bicycles were for big boys, but little boys had to wait till they grew up to have big bicycles.

After mother had given quite a talk on the limitations of little things as compared with big things, Kenny was resigned to the fact that he would grow up into a big boy before he could expect a big two-wheeler.

One day shortly after, while following in the footsteps of some big boys, Kenny tried to step across the ditch he usually jumped across. Kenny missed his footing and had to be helped to his feet. Doug, one of the big boys, told Kenny he was a little fool to try to step across the ditch. Kenny innocently enough replied, "I may be a little fool now, but someday I'll grow up to be a big fool like you."

Doug felt the need of defending his prestige among his associates, who had gathered around and were giving him the laugh. "I'll teach you to call me a big fool," Doug announced and grabbed Kenny by the arm. It looked as if Kenny were due for a shake-up but "Plek on someone your own size" was the cry. The next instant, Kenny was just an innocent bystander. A free-for-all scuffle ensued, but Doug finally emerged in one piece though much the worse for the pounding he received.

After telling the story to his mother, Kenny asked, "If I am a little fool, Doug is a big fool, isn't he, mother?" Mother was inclined to agree, but settled the matter by explaining that Kenny had made a little mistake while Doug had made a big mistake—just by way of comparison.

HOLLAND LANDING

The harvest home services in Christ church were largely attended on Sunday. Miss Lillian Bate, Toronto, is spending this week visiting her brother, Mr. John Bate. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kitching spent the week in Huntsville. Our public school has an enrolment of 90 pupils this year. There will be a dance in the unfinished community hall Saturday night. More help is needed to finish the hall. The dance will be like an old time barn dance. There won't be any lunch this Saturday. Miss Verna Stephenson has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. MacCallum. We are pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lundy are remaining in the village, instead of moving to Toronto as they planned.

POTTAGEVILLE

On Friday, a social evening was held in the United church Sunday-school room. Mrs. Arthur Westlake and Walter Archibald were the lucky winners in the croquinoile games and were presented with prizes. A dainty lunch was provided by the ladies.

Owing to the anniversary services at Kettleby church, there will be no morning service at the United church in Pottageville. Sunday-school will be held as usual at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stone and sons, Jack and George, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maughan.

Mrs. George West is spending two weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred West of Bowmanville, who have become the proud parents of a seven-pound boy. Congratulations and good wishes are extended.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt-Gerrans were guests at a wedding in Mono Mills Anglican church when Miss Doris Jackson, daughter of Mr. John E. Jackson, Ballyrooy, became the bride of Mr. Gordon Robinson of Bolton. A reception was held in the parish hall.

The Baptist Mission Circle held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Shanks on Thursday, Sept. 23. There were about 30 present including members, guests and children. Mrs. B. Bowman conducted the meeting which opened with praise and prayer. The roll-call was answered with a Scripture verse. The meeting was closed by Mrs. Willbee. Lunch was served.

MOUNT PISGAH

We would like to draw your attention to the following change of time for church and Sunday-school services. From now on Sunday-school will be at 1:30 p.m. with church immediately following at 2:30 p.m. About 15 members of Gormley Women's Institute visited Snowball branch last Wednesday, Sept. 22. All report an enjoyable time with praises still ringing in our ears of the delicious and dainty lunch that was served. Many thanks to Snowball for everything.

Last Tuesday evening a miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stephenson for Miss Doreen Stephenson and William Mitchell who were married at Mount Pisgah United church on September 25. We would like to extend our best for a happy life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Evans returned home about two weeks ago from a motor tour of western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Deeks, our August newlyweds, spent the weekend in the Brown home and left Sunday night for Guelph where they will make their home.

Mrs. L. Brillinger, Ringwood, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Russell Sproton, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Duncan and family and Mr. Archie Gillis, Toronto, spent the weekend in the Leary home.

Mr. Bob Duncan, Streetsville, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ash.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Botham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Botham and Ronald attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen in Toronto Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Victoria Square, called on the Gambles last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Evans spent Sunday in Toronto and visited the Misses Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Botham are spending a few days in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Milne and family.

WE HEAR, WE SEE,
WE DO

On Friday afternoon at Vandorf hall we heard a well known, well loved Canadian recite her own poems and tell their origin and the circumstances in which she had given these readings. Even before we saw her, many of us felt we knew Edna Jacques through her poetry and that all we knew was good. If we felt that way before we met and heard her, how much more we felt it after we met the small, honey woman who has travelled so many thousands of miles to bring glimpses of beauty and home, to rich and poor, isolated communities and cities and everywhere to captivate her audiences by a charm that is all her own.

There was a well filled hall to welcome her at Vandorf and after O Canada, a sing-song and a solo, Canada Ever by your scribe accompanied by Miss L. Reynolds, Aurora. Mrs. White, Vandorf's W.I. president, called on Mrs. Rose, Aurora, to introduce the speaker, which she did in a few well chosen words which showed her to be well acquainted with the indefinable "something" which makes Edna Jacques a name to conjure with. Miss Jacques read the poem, My Kitchen Window, which describes how much of life, sorrow, joy and beauty passes by it every day if we have eyes to see. She told of being asked to the home of a rich old Vancouver lady who wished to meet its author; of her fear that she might encounter a butler and of consulting her mother as to her proper procedure if she should. Too, of her mother's answers, "How should I know, I've never seen one but in the movies". She did meet the butler, but came out unscathed from the encounter and found the lady who had sent for her a perfectly delightful person. In the course of conversation, Miss Jacques said "But you don't have a kitchen window," and the reply "Come and see what I do have," and leading her to the library she opened stained glass windows and there was the same view Edna Jacques had written of.

She told us of her grandmother's pastry—the lovely smell of cookies and apples and spices—an aroma that outlived childhood to such an extent that during the drought in Saskatchewan when Miss Jacques brother was one of those authorized to open a carload of food from Ontario, he had a lump as big as an apple in his throat when he entered the car and smelled the apples and was carried back over the years to grandmother's pastry.

She told of going to a big mining camp where nearly all her hearers were men. When she asked her mother what to speak about, that practical lady said—Talk about "eats". Well she did and as this was in the land of the midnight sun, she didn't know the time. She began to tire at last and on asking her hostess for the time, learned it was 3 a.m. and the men were still talking of how their mothers cooked this and that.

She read a poem, My Daughter, which all who have girls or who come in contact with them appreciated. It told of what mothers go through when their daughters don't think the mothers dress right, or laugh too loud or sing too heartily, but of the deep tie which lies below this and eventually tightens to the exclusion of all non-essentials. It was an afternoon to live in one's memory. Miss Jacques is small and neat, with brown eyes that see everything close at hand but seem, too, to see other things beyond the ken of those less gifted.

The meeting closed with God Save the King and a delightful lunch served by our hostesses.

A Shower
On Wednesday, Sept. 22, at the home of Mrs. Harry West, a shower was given for Irene McNicol whose marriage to Tom Sheridan takes place on Saturday, Oct. 2, at Wesley church, Vandorf. It was a large, neighborly gathering and people enjoyed one another's company as they waited for Irene to be placed in the seat of honor with Alta Druery to assist in opening the parcels which presently were brought in by Patsy Walker, Susan and Marcen Starr and Lynn Penrose. The gifts were many and beautiful. Your scribe presented the Dickens plate which goes to all the Christmas party girls as they marry. Gladys Ridley and Frances Walker, received other gifts, but we decided after that to make it uniform—hence the Dickens plate. Irene thanked everyone charmingly and then we all joined in another pleasant event—as sandwiches, cake and tea were served. We all wish Irene and Tom all the joy that life has to offer.

A Party
The other half of the family and I attended the Newmarket Trinity United church choir party. From 7 to 9 was spent by those who bowl, doing just that at Goodman's Bowling Alley. We who didn't bowl enjoyed watching those who did and then all repaired to the King George Hotel where supper was served to the 25 of us who were present. The other ten who for various reasons were unable to be there, missed a delicious supper of salad plate, rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee and fun, music and good fellowship. Mrs.

Miss Willa McCaffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCaffrey, 51 Lorne Ave., has returned to Newmarket after graduating from St. Michael's Hospital School of Nursing, Toronto.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS
by Don Graham

When you make a serious mistake do you brood over it? Or do you try to ignore it?

Actually, neither of these reactions is desirable. You will be wiser to follow these simple rules:

1. After making a mistake, admit that you made it. If it causes trouble or inconvenience to others, make an honest confession to those involved. Don't try to "pass the buck". If it involves no other people, admit your error to yourself.
2. Try to profit by your mistakes. We learn many of life's most valuable lessons through trial and error. Even big mistakes can serve a useful purpose by making us wiser and more alert.
3. Don't worry excessively. "To err is human." Others concerned soon forgive and forget.

Remember, too, that you can often prevent things from going wrong in the first place by cultivating greater concentration and thoroughness in everything you do.

Sometimes mistakes have tragic consequences. Many widows have a difficult time providing for themselves and their children because their husbands left them so little to live on. This mistake is never made by men who own adequate life insurance.

Newmarket Girl Writes Of Mardi Gras Of The Sea

The Era and Express has received the following account from Mrs. Davis Edwards (Dorothy Gartshore) of the "Mardi Gras of the Sea" at Lunenburg which she visited recently. In her accompanying letter, Mrs. Edwards writes they are enjoying Nova Scotia "and felt that they would like to convey some of the local color to their home town."

Her description follows:

Mayor D. F. Adams of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, sends greetings to the people of Newmarket. With his permission I am writing this article about Lunenburg and its fair. The site of the fair is the park of Lunenburg, at the head of the busiest fisheries harbor of Nova Scotia. Lunenburg, settled in 1753 by German and Dutch pioneers, is a picturesque, prosperous town, built on a promontory between two harbors. The smaller harbor is a haven for pleasure craft, while the main harbor is the hub of all activity. It is lined with fishing vessels of all sizes, fish processing factories, lobster depots, and ship-building yards. I could not help but be thrilled by the tap of hammers as I watched a schooner taking shape in the Smith-Rhuland yards. Remember the famed schooner, "Blue-nose"? Lunenburg was its home. Farther along the coast are wharves covered with codfish drying in the sun. This form of drying fish is giving place to new types of processing which are faster, in order to meet the demands of the export trade.

Lunenburg has several other industries, but all depend on fishing. Diesel engines and all sorts of equipment for ships and processing firms are manufactured here. A word must be said for the people. They are hard-working, ambitious, friendly folk, who treat even strangers as part of the family. A group of us in town for the fair were entertained royally.

The fair, called the Nova Scotia Fisheries Exhibition and Fishermen's Reunion, was a gala event, lasting five days, Sept. 14-18. Mayor Adams, president of the fair, presented the dominion minister of fisheries, Hon. R. W. Mayhew, who opened the exhibition. From his address, we learned that this was the 12th fisheries exhibition, and the 24th fishermen's reunion. It started as a picnic for fishermen where they and their families gathered to give thanks for the safety of the men, and the fruit of their toils. On exhibit in the three large buildings were handicrafts, all types of equipment used in

Mrs. M. McLellan, Toronto, Mrs. J. Totten, Gilford, Mrs. A. Gauthier, Vancouver, are visiting their sister, Mrs. R. Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clarke and Jane, and Mrs. Bertha Dunn of Aurora were calling in town on Sunday afternoon.

The W.M.S. service in the United church on Sunday morning was largely attended and Mrs. Muir, a returned missionary from the China Inland Mission, was the guest speaker. Her theme was "How are we going to learn to live together in this old world?" A missionary for seven years in China, she gave a very fine description of the country and people she lived among. The success of their work depends on getting native teachers and helpers to interest the multitudes of Chinese people. Mrs. Muir is only on her fourth and expects to return to her work there with her husband in another year.

Mrs. Marie Lyons was soloist for the service and sang very beautifully, "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "There were Ninety and Nine."

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Armstrong, Toronto, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver.

Old Timers Try Once More This Time They Tie The Score

Yesteryear's stars, "The Old Timers," are still going strong. That "old gang" is better or else the midgets are worse. These two star-packed crews renewed their battle Friday evening at Pantry Park. In the first game if you recall, it was Midgets 5, Old Timers 4. Friday evening, when the books were finally closed, it was 7-7.

With great huffing and puffing the Oldsters completed the plateyard journey for a run in the first, three in the third and an equal number in the fifth. The Midgets, not caring one bit about reputations, shuttled three runs over the dish in the first, two in the third and one in the fifth and plated the tying tally in the dying moments of the sixth.

The old rhubarb got a good chewing over in the sixth when "Peaches" VanZant, displaying a lot of ginger behind the home dish of the oldsters, poled a long hit out of the park. This would have meant the game to the old timers as it matched a previous four-base knock by Stan. Winger. Peaches' blow probably would still be heading south but it hit the concrete building in right centre field and bounced back onto the field. After much chin wagging, umpires Reg. Ball and Harry Thoms ruled no homer but just a long single. That hurt the Old Timers' cause no end, but they came out of the fray in splendid shape and ranting for another go at the young gaffers. We have it on good authority this argument is going to be settled in the near future and the Old Timers are going to have one last chance to maintain their reputations. Otherwise the grandchildren aren't going to believe a word about what did happen on the greensward back in 19-7.

Old Timers: C. VanZant, O.

Juniors Try Out For Barrie Flyers

Ronnie Simmons, tricky Aurora junior pivot star and top scorer of the team, and Jack Andrews, husky defenceman and forward, are both in Barrie this week for a trial with coach Happy Emms, junior A Barrie Flyers. Both boys, who have played junior with Aurora the past two years, have made a strong impression according to reports, although the opposition is keen. Both boys have two more years of junior hockey. Aurora fans are pulling for them to make good but if they do, there will be two vacancies hard to fill on this year's Aurora junior club.

Schools To Compete In Track - Field Tests

Aurora will be the scene of the North York interscholastic track and field championships on Wednesday, Oct. 6, when Aurora, Newmarket and Richmond Hill will compete for the A. J. G. Eckhardt trophy, presently held by the purple and gold team from Newmarket. The competition this year is expected to be closer than ever and this marks the first occasion the meet has been held in Aurora since before the war. The meet will commence in the morning and the lengthy schedule will not likely be finished before dusk.

Gould, J. Hisey, H. Haskett, G. Blight, N. Tansley, E. Gould, H. Cain, T. Mosler; Midgets: S. Winger, O. Thoms, H. Stevenson, W. Smith, J. Hugo, J. Cain, A. McKnight, J. Simmons, W. Haskett, H. Peterman.

Ladies Even Series With Midland

Down The Centre

With AB HULSE

POT POURRI

Newmarket Ladies ran into a set-back in their hunt for the Barrie and district softball championship at the Stuart Scott school Thursday evening. The Midland "Parkies" came out of the north as underdogs, and vanished homeward with a few Newmarket scalps and a 9-5 triumph. That gives the Midlanders an edge in the best two-of-three series as the return game will be up for settlement on their diamond.

The locals staked their pitcher, Betty VanZant, to a run in the first as left-fielder Mary Ellen McInnis and Mary Osborne collaborated with a single and a double to fashion the lead. The Parkies retaliated in the second with June Hansford's three-run homer and a real hit it was. The invaders produced again in the third as a walk, an error and a group of five hits in a row plated six runs. Betty VanZant breezed through the rest of the route without a Midlander reaching the home plate.

Our ladies made a gesture to get back in the game in the fourth as Mary Osborne walked, and Marg. Arnold followed with a three-base blow—the first of her three hits—which landed just inside the left field line. Lois Blight's perfectly set up bunt scored Marg. with the second run of the frame. That made it nine to three for the invaders.

A threatening last-innings rally by the VanZant-Courtney squad broke off at two as Lois Manning and Phyl. McInnis galloped over the dish on hits by Mary Osborne and Marg. Arnold. Muriel Rawn, who pitched a steady brand of ball to send down eight Newmarket hitters via the strike-out route, retired the side as Lois Blight and Edna McGrath went down on strikes.

Lois Manning gave a nice defensive display in the outfield with a pair of running catches, and so did Mary Ellen McInnis, and the work of Phyl. McInnis around the keystone sack was of top order all right. Mary Ellen McInnis and Marg. Arnold led our batters with three hits each. In fact we out-hit the Northerners 12 to 10 but left eight runners stranded. June Hansford supplied the batting punch for Midland with a trio of hits, a homer and two singles.

Freddie Sparks, who guarded the nets for Collingwood intermediates last winter and was generally regarded as the best goalie in the local circuit, will perform this winter for Marquette Rockets in the Wisconsin-Michigan-Ontario league. Bob Bangay of Markham Millionaires fame according to all reports will coach the Unionville junior hockey team this winter. Bangay, Bill Hood, Nick Bangay, Jack Watson, the Rumney brothers and company wound up in softball as champions of Markham twp., as Bantamville took the honors. A. W. Lawton, Markham, prominent in district hockey for many years, announces that Markham will definitely be back in junior hockey ranks this winter. Frankie Sullivan, big Richmond Hill boy who had a trial with Toronto Maple Leafs at St. Catharines, will return to Oshawa for another year in junior company. Don Hudson, husky star of last year's Gananoque junior team, well remembered in Aurora, is likely to make the grade with Tommy Anderson's Oshawa team, according to early season reports from the Motor City. Woodbridge and Maple currently lead their series against North Peel and Hespeler in the lacrosse play-offs and are favored to hold their lead. Both teams have had capacity games in the "serious." North York may yet wind up with two Ontario championships. Stouffville definitely has dropped from the junior O.H.A. picture but will continue in the O.H.A. with an intermediate B team. It will be a good one, too.

Harry Milroy, Markham Millionaires and Sutton Greenshirts favorite, pitched Wrights of the Scarboro league to the T.A.S.A. intermediate softball championship. Harry Couse, Bill Thornton and the lads from Tottenham seek the C series Canadian Legion honors. Tottenham defeated Woodbridge and now meets Ajax. Mattawa, Merlin and Caledonia are others in the series left. In the B Legion series, Cobourg, Collingwood, Tilbury and Brampton are left. In the A series, Orillia, Woodbine Heights, Windsor and St. Catharines are in the semi-final rounds.

Jackpots were reached in the Lake Simcoe softball play-off series. One gate went over $125 and another coffee pot take was $78. That's better than the take at any gate over the year in the North Yonge league. Reg Murphy, once manager of the Bank of Montreal, Aurora, and now in London, and his daughter, Barbara Murphy (named after her mother, the former Barbara Stevenson, Aurora), played in the parent-child Ontario golf championship recently and made a fine showing. Our thanks to Chart Holmes and the executive of the Hamilton Wildcats for a touchline pass for all games regardless of where played in the big four. Charlie is still mighty keen on the chances of the Hamilton tabbies.

Shepperton, owned by Fred Schelke, Gormley, at eight years old is about ready for action. So keep your fingers crossed that this one can display old time form. Gordy Orr, defence stalwart of the Maple team and one of York County's best known young farmers, middle-aged recently with Miss Margaret McGilivray. Welcome home rings out for the popular and capable Reg Blackstock who is once again in charge of physical education at Pickering College. "Blackie" has been at McGill U the past two years and having completed his course, he returns to Newmarket with new ideas and the same old enthusiasm. He'll be particularly well received in basketball circles where his competent officiating has been missed. Watch out for the Grey and Blue on all fronts.

Indoor Soccer: Practice sessions for the newly organized indoor soccer league are due to start this week. Six teams are ready to display their kicking ability. They are the Vets, Town Team, Sangamo, Office Specialty, Hoffman and Davis Leather. They'll launch the schedule Tuesday, Oct. 12, and then the teams will be at it with noofs a-flying each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter, and staging a double-header each night at that. The rules committee of president Mickey Smith, Jack Beattie, Barney Revill and Harold Gwyn will meet in the near future to put the league on a sound playing basis.

One of the items as a first consideration by the committee will be the size of the nets. The last year the league operated, hockey nets were used but were found to be too small and goals few and far between. It is likely a ten foot by six foot goal will be agreed upon and this should make for more scoring and greater fan interest. The goal of the teams will be the trophy donated by the Davis Leather Co. and now held by the Vets, the 1946 winners.

Newmarket Ladies' pennant outlook is not too rosy at the moment. How long it will remain that way depends on the outcome of the second game at Midland. It's going to be an uphill struggle for the red-uniformed squad, but don't be surprised if it goes to a third game. Tennis: Keith Davis is once again master of the Newmarket courts. He pulled down the singles crown with a 6-0, 6-3 win over challenger Bob Dales last week. Keith will be getting to think the N. L. Mathews trophy, which goes to the winner, has become a permanent fixture on his mantlepiece. He has won it three years in a row.

Hockey: With the advent of the cooler weather, the rumor mills are starting to churn out their early season guff. Latest to hit the street being a Yonge St. intermediate loop comprising Richmond Hill, Aurora, Newmarket and Bradford. It would make a nice compact circuit, at that, and might revive the Old Metropolitan League days.

Pickering College sports: For those Newmarket folks interested in football, a journey up to the big school on the hill of a Saturday afternoon will be well rewarded with the college squads now in action. The seniors are set to tangle with Pickering Old Boys this Saturday afternoon with future games slated with St. Andrew's U.C.S., U.T.S. and Upper Canada. C. R. "Blackie" Blackstock is sports director as

Drill Twisters Cop Hoffman Honors

Hank VanZant's Drill Twisters can now put on that "I told you so" act at the Hoffman diggings. They are the champs of the Hoffman softball circuit. The Twisters didn't waste any time in earning their laurels as they waded through Benville's "Ramblers" in two straight to lay claim to the top honors.

Last Thursday after the Drill Twisters had laid low the Ramblers by a healthy margin in the first game of the series, Benville's boys came back with a show of better fighting spirit. They managed to hold the Drill-twisters to 15 runs while chalking up ten on their own account. In fact, the Ramblers looked as though they might do some giant killing on their own as they bounded into an early lead with nine runs in the first round and rode home with a single tally in the second. After that rocky start Bob Murray on the Twisters' mound choked off all signs of a score. The Drillers came up with a lot of bad news for the Ramblers as they started to find the range and finally drew up even in the sixth at 10-10. This heavy slick work by the VanZant nine got Vic Langford—who up to this point had been pitching in splendid fashion—out of there in favor of "Hutch" Hutchinson. The ultimate winners doused all hopes for the Ramblers as they piled in for five runs in the seventh and as it turned out that was the old ball game and championship. It was a close ball game with few long hits and a fine "winder-up" to the league.

The Champs, VanZant's Drill Twisters: A. Bryson, J. Proud, B. Smalley, G. Blight, J. Jones, Coates, B. Murray, B. LeShion, H. VanZant; finalists, Benville's Ramblers: J. Boag, P. Hutchinson, J. Higginson, C. Codlin, B. Benville, W. Hill, V. Langford, G. Hill, J. Gill.

In the past, with Dick Mather acting as co-ordinator. The coaching chore for the seniors will be handled by Barney Jackson, with Lou Lanier directing the juniors. The junior squad will go to bat against Newmarket and Aurora high teams and St. Andrew's juniors. Inter-mural football squads of either six or eight will take care of the younger students. A new item on the sport calendar will be soccer, and games will be sought with Aurora, Richmond Hill and Bradford.

INDUCTION SERVICE

Newmarket—Dr. J. G. Barry is being inducted into the Sutton church at a service held at the Sutton Presbyterian church on Thursday, Sept. 30.

Indoor Soccer Resumes After Lapse Of Year

Indoor soccer will once again move front and centre in the sport scene in the cannatown this fall. After a lapse of a year, the league is organized and ready to resume activity. An organization meeting Monday was well attended and entries were accepted from six teams. Newmarket Vets, champions of 1946, a town team headed by Harold Gwyn, Sangamo Electric, Office Specialty, Hoffman and Davis Leather. Election of officers followed with Mickey Smith being sent to the president's chair, Jack "Ceegars" McDonald getting the nod as vice-president and Hawk Haskett, secretary-treasurer. A rules committee of Mickey Smith, Jack Beattie, Barney Revill and Harold Gwyn was drafted and will meet in the near future to draw up a constitution and set up the by-laws governing the league. League play is slated to get underway Tuesday, Oct. 12, with games each Tuesday and Thursday thereafter.

Industrial Teams Seek Town Honors

The Industrial league softball teams enjoying a bit of a quiet summer are going to make merry this Saturday afternoon. They're going to settle, if plans underway are fulfilled, who's top team of the year all in one afternoon. Four teams are in: Hoffman, Office Specialty, Davis Leather and Sangamo Electric. Sharp at one o'clock, Hoffman will hook up with Office Specialty on one diamond, and on the other, Davis Leather and Sangamo will go at it. Then it will be the two winners tearing into each other for top honors. While at the moment the line-ups are a deep dark secret, it's almost a certainty Captain Pete Neufeld of the Cabinet Makers will have Lloyd Preston on the mound. The Tanners will likely send Don Glover to toe the rubber. Hoffman has plenty of talent to show from their league during the summer. Sangamo Electric is looked upon as the dark horse but may come up with a surprise starter or two.

GUIDE NEWS

Concentrating on an almost perfect defensive display and unleashing a 13-hit attack, Newmarket ladies roared back from their recent defeat at the hands of Midland Parkies to romp to a 13-6 win in the Georgian Bay metropolis Wednesday afternoon. That, my hearties, squared the Barrie and district finals at a game each. Third game is due for settlement in Newmarket but just when is not certain at the moment, possibly this Saturday.

Our maids didn't fool in that 13-hit attack on Muriel Rawn, Midland's ace pitcher. Home runs were a specialty on the menu for the day, no less than four ringing off their swinging bats. Second sacker Phyl McInnis parked number one. Coming in the initial round with Lois Manning on the bases it set the scoring pattern. Lois Blight was next in line to receive the handshakes for a four-baser, — a mighty smash it was at that. Lois says it was her first in five years, and it accounted for another pair of markers.

Edna McGrath surpassed even her mates' base circling efforts by blasting out two. Her fifth inning blow was good for three runs, with Lois Blight and Marg. Arnold on the runways. Her seventh innings swifter, an even longer blast, scored another pair of runs.

Betty VanZant on the mound for the canal town pitched a steady ball game allowing only eight hits. Midland recorded only three earned runs. Mona Dean, her battery mate, as always was a big asset behind the plate, turning in a star effort and keeping her infield mates up on their toes.

Fielding was tops, being highlighted by three nice catches by Mary Osborne, line drives they were. Second sacker Phyl McInnis and Lois Blight both pulled down liners. Mary Ellen McInnis and Lois Manning covered the outfield beat in faultless fashion.

Davis Horseshoe Pitchers Enter Semi-Finals

The semi-finals in the Davis Leather horse-shoe tossing opened Monday of this week. Gord. Stimmerson's foursome, leaders of the league most of the season, took a fall out of John Cryderman's heavers. Stimmerson's team of Gen. Inglewood Jr., Bill Townsley and Whim Bowdwin won nine out of the 16 games to eliminate Cryderman's club of Ollie Gould, Geo. Smart and Bill Bone. Stimmerson racked up a total of 268 points against 238 for the losers. In the other semi-final bracket, up for decision Wednesday evening, Roy Chant's squad will do battle with Len. Burling's foursome. The finals are due Friday evening.
